

Brockton WINS the STEM competition at the opening of CUNY University, New York science and research center. Brockton high Empower Yourself students made a strong showing at the STEM Competition at CUNY University in New York and got first place in a very strong field of schools from New York and New Jersey.

Cyber Security and Drug Resistant antibody's powered a very strong showing by Empower Yourself students.

